Scholarship Descriptions

1. United Methodist Women Scholarship

Established in 1957 and supported through gifts to the United Methodist Women Scholarship Fund.

This scholarship is for members of Grace United Methodist Church who are seeking post-secondary education. Applicants must have demonstrated scholastically that they will do well in educational endeavors. Recipients may be awarded a United Methodist Women scholarship no more than two (2) times. After these basic requirements are met, selection is based on the following criteria: participation at Grace 40%, character 30%, and need 30%, with consideration also given to other scholarships received and school and community participation.

2. Wallace and Marge Taylor Scholarship

Established in 1989 through interest on proceeds from the sale of the Taylor home which was a gift to Grace.

Recipients of this scholarship must be seeking a post-secondary education. Applicants (or their parents) must be members of Grace United Methodist Church. Recipients may be awarded a Taylor scholarship no more than four (4) times. This scholarship will be awarded on the basis of the following, prioritized criteria: financial need and outstanding characteristics (as determined by church, school, and community activities, the diversity of activities, and academic achievement)

3. Michael Hargrove Scholarship

In memory of Michael Bruce Hargrove, 11/28/78—6/24/01

Michael was a successful student who participated in sports and extra-curricular activities. He was a well-rounded, caring individual with a variety of interests and a true love and concern for others. It is the aim of this scholarship to assist someone like him, who strives to give their best in their educational endeavors and in their personal relationships. This scholarship is available only for high school graduating seniors seeking a post-secondary education who are members of Grace United Methodist Church. This scholarship will be awarded on the basis of the following: diversity of activities, academic achievement, and financial need.
